Enterprise Week

This week all the classes have turned themselves into mini companies and have been busy producing and marketing a range of produce and services, from Christmas ornaments to chocolates and from seed bombs to a pompom pets. They have made posters and adverts.

They will be selling their wares at the Enterprise Fayre this afternoon and in the Christmas Fayre tonight.

SEND Local Offer

The new SEND Local Offer is now on the Southampton City Council website which also has lots of other really helpful information related to young people with special educational needs.

Vocational Learning

Great Oaks students working hard in the local community. As part of their Vocational studies, Charlie, Kobie and Dominik, worked incredibly hard on a freezing cold day to clear the path between Winchester Road and Red Lodge Pool of fallen leaves. Well done guys.

Going for Gold – Winter Olympics

There is a Winter Olympics theme to PE lessons over these last two weeks of term as part of our Going for Gold theme. Pupils have enjoyed taking part in a range of winter related sports.
